The Hon. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Bill:

We were delighted to receive [redacted] letter of June 29 confirming your participation in the 1982 Harry J. Sievers Memorial Lecture Series. Yours is the fourth and concluding lecture to encompass American Economic and Foreign Policy. Kindly advise us of the title of your remarks.

STAT

We shall in accordance with [redacted] request send you a copy of the invitation indicating the participants. We are approximating 200 attendees at your lecture. The press is being notified of the Lecture Series and we would then anticipate press coverage.

STAT

We do hope that you will have a text which you would share with us for possible publication in the Center's Presidential Studies Quarterly.

We should be happy to extend special invitations to such persons as you might advise both as related to the lecture and to the dinner following.

Kindly advise us regarding the foregoing. Warm regards.

Sincerely yours,

R. Gordon Hoxie
